Regional Art Show

Three students from Scottsburg High School were recognized for outstanding work in the Regional Scholastic Art and Writing Competition. Over 2,100 art entries and 180 writing entries were received in the 54 central and southern Indiana county region, and winners were notified this week.

Sophomore Devon Stidham was announced as a Gold Key winner for his digital art "Mind Blown." His work will be sent on to the National Scholastic Competition as well as be on display at Clowes Memorial Hall on the Butler University campus.

Freshman Brittany Stidham was notified that her work was one of the photography pieces named as an honorable mention. She submitted a silhouette entitled "Misty Mornings," which she took for her photojournalism class.

Freshman Madeline Parker was also notified of honorable mention status for her entries into the poetry writing contest. She will have her work published in a booklet that will also be on display at Clowes Memorial Hall.

The display of art and writing called "Visions and Voices" will be from Tuesday, March 5 through Sunday, March 17, from 9-5.

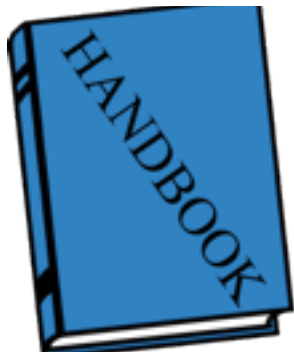

These students will be recognized on Sunday, March 17 at a 4 p.m. awards ceremony.

In all, six students in Mrs. Jerrell's classes chose to enter the judged contest with half receiving honors for their work.

Congratulations to the following students who impressed or inspired the staff during the month of January:

Athletes of the Month: Isaac Hunefeld & Allyssa Napier
Students of the Month: Freshman Jacky Valencia
Sophomore Keely East
Junior Amanda Amick
Senior Tyler Tscheulin

SHS Policy Reminder

Scottsburg High School has a closed campus and students are NOT allowed to leave during the lunch period. Situations in which the student must leave during the lunch period will require the parent/guardian or other adult listed on the emergency form in the office to come in physically to sign out the student. Students who violate the closed campus policy will receive discipline.

The delivery or carry in of food to (or by) Scottsburg High School students is NOT allowed unless purchased by the school or club sponsor. Deliveries of flowers, gifts, and balloons are also not allowed and will not be accepted.

These policies are part of our commitment to student safety and we thank you for your cooperation.

Scottsburg FFA Members Succeed at State Dairy Foods Judging CDE Contest at Purdue University

Nine members of the Scottsburg FFA Chapter spent Saturday, January 26th, 2013 at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana tasting cheeses, identifying defects in milk samples, evaluating milker unit parts, and testing their knowledge of the dairy industry at the State Dairy Foods Contest.

We are all proud of team members; Tiffany Couch, Saydie Bowyer, Anna Hall and Olivia Thompson who placed 39th out of 60 teams. Billie Goble did a great job competing as an individual. She placed 177 out of 230 individuals. Samantha Brown, Caitlin Crumes, Ethan McNeely and A.J. Lincoln placed 3rd as a team and Ethan McNeely was named the top individual in the contest! Congratulations to all of the
